SFD PREP PROGRAM FALL 2010

A Pre-College Workshop for High School Students

The School of Fashion Design offers pre-college beginner and advanced workshops for high school students. 44 class hours (8 x 5.5 hour sessions) during the fall semester.

1. Fashion Art – Color, 2D, 3D Design, figure drawing, fashion sketching and illustration; and
2. Clothing Construction and Detail – pattern manipulation & adjustment, fabric selection, cutting, machine stitching, hand sewing, pressing and detailing.

THE PREP PROGRAM IS EXCLUSIVELY FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

1. Who may be considering a career objective of professional fashion design.
2. Who may want to explore certain aspects of fashion design – as well as their interests and talents within before they commit themselves to a particular college.
3. Whose high school program may not include art and/or sewing classes.
4. Who may want/need to formulate (for possible college or job applications) a portfolio of both fashion drawings and sewing projects.
5. Who may simply be interested in fashion design as an avocation (hobby, craft, relaxation, etc.) to supplement their own interests.
6. Students interested in the advanced workshop need to have completed the beginner level of the prep program.

The FALL 2010 Prep Program meets for 8 weeks, 5.5 hours each week of art and sewing.
