ONE winner will be selected for each of the summer 2010 sessions.

Check first preference. Please be advised that we will make every effort to provide the winner with their first choice for the session they would prefer but scheduling may place them in the alternate session.

__ SESSION I: July 6th – July 28th

__ SESSION II: August 2nd – August 25th

The 'Fashion Prep' course is four weeks long for a total of 44 hours, meeting on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9AM-2:30PM. The course is designed to familiarize students with the principals of fashion sketching, construction and patternmaking.

Each student is asked to submit a total of FIVE sketches in color. Each sketch should be NO SMALLER than 8.5"X11" and NO LARGER than 14"X17". Acceptable mediums include color pencil, marker and/or watercolor. The collection of sketches should include an example from each of the categories below:

CAREER CLOTHING - garments appropriate on the job.

ACTIVE SPORTSWEAR – garments for athletic activities.

EVENINGWEAR – garments for special occasions and formal events.

BRIDAL – classic or non-traditional wedding gowns

FANTASY/COSTUME – garments found on stage or in film (period/futuristic/fantasy)

Entries will be judged in four areas by a panel of SFD faculty and fashion industry leaders.

ORIGINALITY – How unique are the ideas for each category?

WEARABILITY – How wearable is the design for each category?

SKILL – How well have the sketches been executed?

PRESENTATION – How professionally has the collection of sketches been presented?

ESSAY: Please answer the following question in 200-300 words on a separate page:

WHY ARE YOU INTERESTED IN FASHION DESIGN?

WINNERS secure a place in the School of Fashion Design's High School Prep Program for Fashion Design

Total value: $1,000 (Includes registration, tuition and supply kit)

PLUS 2 tickets (for each winner) to the School of Fashion Design's Annual Fashion Show on Saturday, May 8, 2010, where the winners' work will be on display.
